CONTINUATION OF COMPLAINT:Juan MENDOZA-Resendez*PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On June 28, 2008, Border Patrol Agent R. Moore was assigned to line watch duties in the Chula Vista Border Patrol's area of operations. At approximately 6:02 PM, Agent Moore responded to a seismic intrusion device in an area known as the "80 Highpoint." This area is located approximately four miles east of the Otay Mesa, California Port of Entry and approximately one mile north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary.

While responding to the location, Agent Moore encountered an individual walking north. Agent Moore identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned the subject as to his citizenship and nationality. The individual, later identified as the defendant Juan MENDOZA-Resendez, admitted to being a citizen and national of Mexico without any immigration documents that would allow him to be in or remain in the United States legally. Agent Moore placed MENDOZA under arrest and had him transported to the Chula Vista Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on November 17, 2006 through San Ysidro, California. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

The defendant was read his Miranda rights. The defendant stated that he understood his Miranda Rights and was willing to answer questions without an attorney present. The defendant stated that he illegally entered the United States and is a citizen and national of Mexico, without any immigration documents that would allow him to be in and stay in the United States legally.
